What have we done? What are we doing? What happens next? Let's continue to change the face of homelessness in FMWF. As a community, we've worked diligently on system change and community education. It's time to pause and assess; to set ambitious AND attainable goals for the next few years.

Think outside the box at a day of innovative, evidence-based discussion, research/data presentations, interactive working session, engaging plenary presentations, and more.

- Presentations by: Sam J. Tsemberis, Ph.D. and Founder/Executive Director of Pathways to Housing
- Discussion centered on the model of Housing First/Harm Reduction
- 2015 Wilder Survey of Homelessness in FM and local housing study results
- Coalition Awards Luncheon
- Interactive working session focused on progress and problem solving on next steps in our area

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Policy makers, faith community leaders, funders, service providers and anyone who is interested in how we could/should/will address poverty and housing in FMWF in the coming years.
